

Ilsington Local History group invites you to an interactive talk on:

Curious Stones in Ilsington Parish

Monday 25th February from 2.30pm
In Ilsington Village Hall (meeting room)

We invite you to submit information (ie. photos, grid reference, brief description) to share on this topic, which we hope will include unusual way markers, gravestones, engraved stones and stone objects from around the Parish. To ensure that your treasured curiosities are included in the electronic presentation please submit details to anne@stonebarrow.plus.com by February 18th. Prize for the most unusual contribution! Have fun!
